The Dreamlife.cz server writes about the author:
(in the words of Mrs. Lucie Kunešová editor)

Philosopher among Czech authors: Zdeňka Jordánová
Her books on the art of living are disappearing from shelves. Her seminars and workshops are crowded. Zdeňka Jordánová goes on a different path than most authors of American bestsellers, yet she is one step ahead in development, one step closer to happiness…

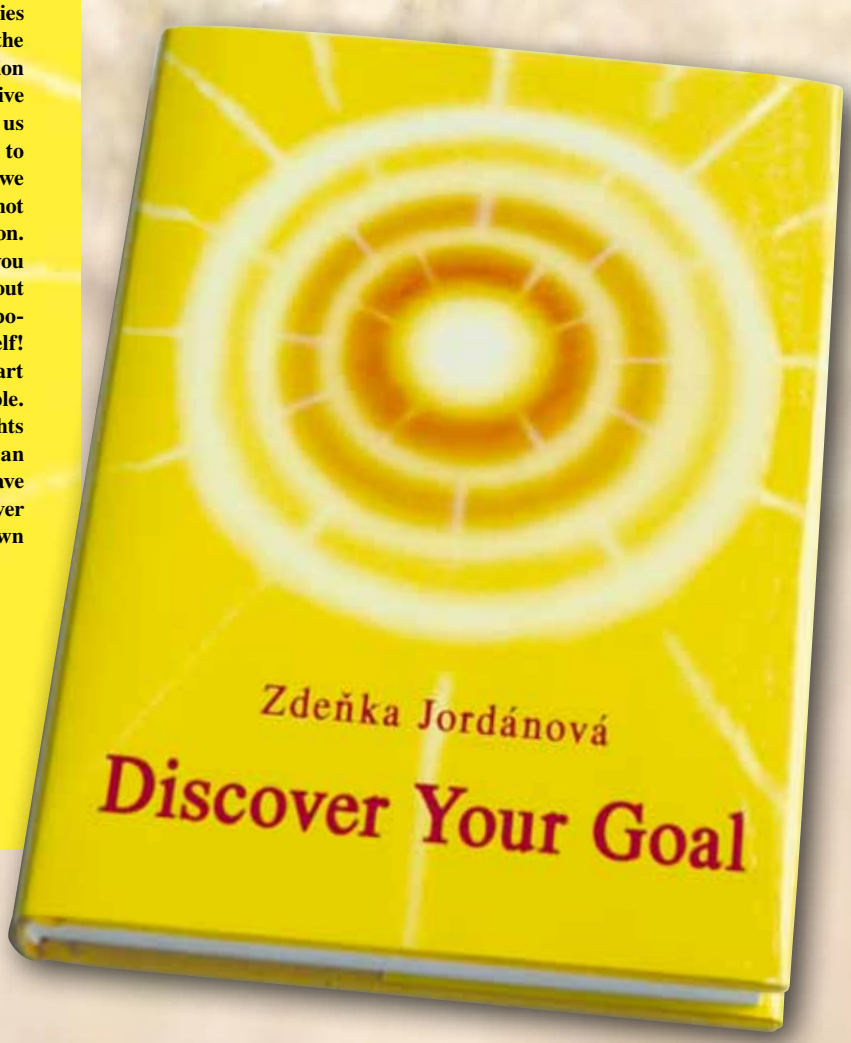
The books by Zdeňka Jordánová can be compared without hesitation to works by such American authors as Rhonda Byrne or Luise L. Hay. While most authors take over ideas or focus just on the surface, Zdeňka Jordánová goes another way. She is neither trying to instil in people an idea of positive way of thinking nor does she stand on affirmations. After all, nor the dreams about millions and life in luxury either. This also accords with the style in which she writes– she writes stories about people for people. She writes in the language of children, old men, she writes stories in such a way as she perceive.

As we open any book by Zdeňka Jordánová, we always have to be willing to take full responsibility for our actions and our life. Her philosophy is rounded-off and gives meaning to our lives.

The genre of Zdeňka Jordánová's books

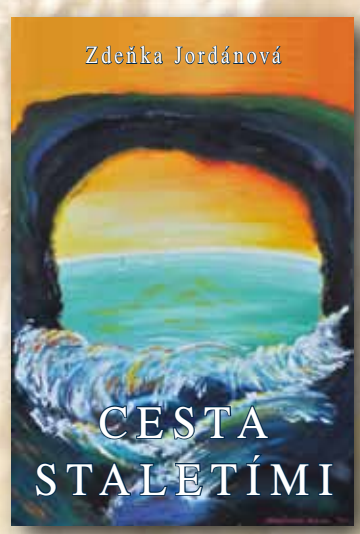
Lifestyle, philosophy, esotericism, education, personal growth, self-knowledge, psychology, pedagogy, fiction… But the author goes across individual genres and touches the essence of things and of our being. The writer has its own category in the Czech Republic bookstores …

Each one of us has our own unique task to do, which on some level we know. If so far you are not feeling fulfilled, move on. Keep on moving on until you find yourself excited about and fascinated by your potential. Express yourself! Each of your thoughts is part of the thoughts of all people. Every one of your thoughts creates and influences the world. That is why you are an important part of this world. Express yourself! You have something to say and the world is waiting for you! Discover your goal! Become the star of your life! Walk in your own light and others will join you too!



DISCOVER YOUR GOAL

A book full of life connections and narratives from the consulting practice of Zdeňka Jordánová. It deals with the basic motivation of a human life – discovering one's goal and plan, which is necessary for a fulfilled and meaningful life. "Discover your goal and become the star of your life, make your dreams come true, and keep going..." Our intentions control our lives; as we think, it will be done. There is nothing that we wouldn't be able to achieve, if we will really want it. Discover the connections and create your life the way you imagine it. Get rid of restrictions and express yourself!!! Our real and true goal contains at any moment also our real and genuine service to all other people.



Journey Through the Centuries

The book deals with the ancient journey of cosmic teachers… It describes the initial vision of beautiful life on Earth, which, however, could not be fulfilled as yet. The teachers have to say goodbye and set out on a journey through the centuries in search of experiences of their souls. The book is a travelogue between space and time, which allows us to remember ancient secrets and understand the charm of some of our almost magical encounters…

It all started with a little blue stamp... And then, with one painting, which I painted just out of the blue..., according to the fantasy… And then an endless number of "coincidences" came, which were, however, inevitable!

Messages from our soul! They are coming to us all the time! It depends merely on us, when we finally start to read them. When at last we will hear this call from a great distance, but yet so strangely close.

Connect experiences of your soul! It's time! Discover the secret of your life, meet with yourself. It is a fantastic experience to face an image of our own soul, which lived in us for centuries…

Bon voyage, dear teachers of wonderful life. It's time to return! Everything will combine one day!

A Journey Through Life in Our Own Car

A book about driving a car and its symbolism for our lives. In this book, you will find also the meaning of our accidents as messages for us about us... The book is about encounters and meetings in cars on the roads.

Meetings...Our whole life is meeting. We are meeting each other even on the roads. We meet with other drivers every second that we spend in our car. Our energy is amplified with the car energy and cause and effect of all our steps takes place much faster than when we go on foot. But we can't say that we like our meetings/encounters on the road every time they take place... We invented beautiful cars that are helping us to pursue our goal, materialize our plans; they are our daily guides. Our own value, however, is low, and we are killing ourselves in these wonderful gifts, which we are giving to ourselves...

Change your attitudes!

The car is a symbol. Driving a car is a symbol of our movement through life that we either control or we do not control… Assume responsibility. Get to know yourself! Love yourself! How beautiful your ride in your car can be!!! Beautiful ride through your life…

There's Still Time

A book about the Great opportunity that just came... It is a challenge to decide what views we want to have further and consequently what kind of world we want to create…

It's time of changes! The year 2012 is the year of meetings. A true meeting with which we can fulfil the original cosmic plan of perfect, meaningful and happy life in the material world here on Earth. The meeting with our self in particular, discovery of our cosmic roots and connections, with recalling what we perhaps know since long ago. Let's step forward on a journey into our inner world where the greatest secret is hidden, and only then we can get acquainted with others. Form must find its lost and forgotten content. Let our ability to feel rises on the daily light and the reason begins to cooperate rather than rule... It's time of changes! The time of love and understanding. However, if we decide so. Our intentions control our world. It's time to meet the original intent of the universe. The universe counts every vote... It depends now on each of us which way everything will run further... Yet there's still time, which side you are going to…

I wish you true decision making!

Your Child as a Chance for You

A book full of stories from the life of the author and her clients. She is passing with us through the whole childhood and maps key periods and our positions in them. We become parents already in our childhood…

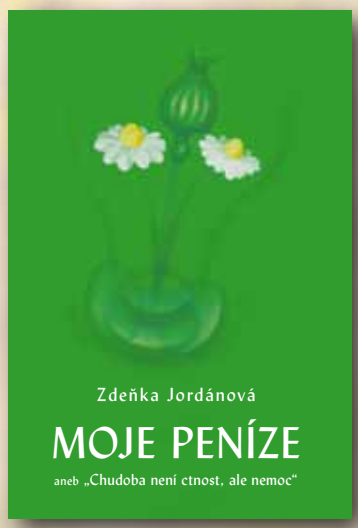
A great meeting! Parents and children!

You met each other to be together for some time. How much of endless joy, but also how much pain, you can bring to each other. The course of this meeting will affect every human being for their whole life. Then we live our whole life within the meaning of this relationship. If we take advantage of this meeting, we can learn so much about ourselves.

Dear parents do not manipulate your children; do not regard them as your goal or property. Live your life and grant your children the same. Thank for this wonderful meeting that is a great opportunity to get to know yourself. Be true and let the children get to know the connexions by telling them the truth about your life.

And do not forget! No one will ever love you as much as your children, no one will ever need you so much and no one will ever trust you as much as your children. Use this chance, which you gave yourself.

Thanks for this great meeting.



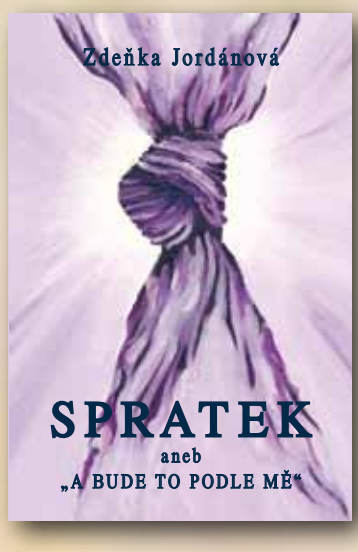
My Money

A tiny book full of practical connections and stories. Money is not the goal, money is the means… Money is expression of our own price and our participation in the events of this world. Money has no power over you, unless you want it…

My money… Get rid of dependence on money, in the best way simply by having it. Get rid of that stupid evasion: "I have no money to buy it", because of which you cannot pursue your goal, express yourself and be happy.

Money is just your mirror summing up your intentions. Therefore change your intentions! You have that power! Be rich! Money is not the matter in the end! You have a more important task! Discover your potential and make your dreams come true!

Accept money into your life and allow it to work for you! For your true goals and plans.
If you will fulfil the purpose of your life, you will do the best also for all others.
You are unique and important beings, you are precious and amazing, afford yourself to express freely!



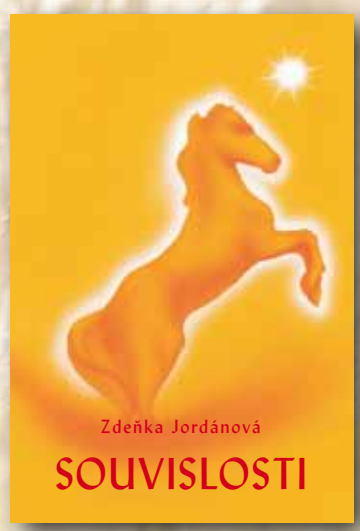
Urchin

A book about sincere growth of each of us... Desire to have things according to one's own wishes at all costs fogs the real sense of things. Sometimes we mix it up with who we really are. That untameable desire of our ego to have things according to our wishes, even where it is impossible, forces us to drag down ourselves and subsequently also others. We are not concerned about things as such, but about a never ending and insatiable desire to be right.
However, we can decide. Maybe even you don't want to continue fighting for yourself any longer...

Love is above everything. It is everywhere and in everybody!
It is a natural and normal state. It's worth working on ourselves to feel it.... It's really in all of us! However, if you choose it...
But if you do not choose, then this is only and only an URCHIN behind it! It is also in all of us! Well, choose... It's time to move on! Step forward on a journey in a search of adventure!

Find and catch your Urchin, grab him by the horns and dispose of. End with it... It may not always be your way, and yet it can be groovy. You don't need always to get exactly what you want from others and how you want it, and yet you can be well with them...

It's time of peace! Peace in us!



Connections

A small and gracious book of stories that really happened. They can be an inspiration for each of us. They are about connections and about how things happen... Oh, how hard it is for us sometimes to accept that things happen just as they are happening…

But there are just connections and coherences in everything. Life of every one of us is just the cause and effect squeezed through a strainer of universal laws.

Do not waste time by not wanting to accept what "happens" to you. Everything has just reason. All are just responses to your actions. Each of your thoughts will materialize in your life, each of your thoughts will manifest.

All things have their own rules. Discover the connections, utilize them in your life, trust. Don't be afraid of witchcraft. Don't be afraid of mysteries. Get to know the connections, and you will become the greatest wizard, wizard of connections, wizard and master of your life...

Man or Woman?

This book, with its absorbing and true stories from the author's practice, prompts us to change our attitudes. Let's end the old fight of men and women. In reality as well as in the head of each of us…

Man or woman? Who is better? What a ridiculous question, isn't? In spite of that, each of us professes one. Each of us learned to be on somebody's side. Father or mother? You know too…

Our world is divided. Outside as well as in the head of each of us.

Find the balance! Stop the age-long fight between man and woman. Fulfil your potential, take advantage of capabilities of a human being, because human being is a man as well as a woman... The possibilities are endless!

Merge the view of man and woman!

You need both. Utilize your potentialities by enriching yourselves with the view of opposite polarity. Don't Fight! The more views you manage to join, the closer you are to God.
And men? Stop lord it over women and humiliate them as well as yourselves by wanting them to serve you.

And women? Stop humiliating men and yourselves by serving them. Take care of yourself and stop trying to prove your equivalence with men. This does not mean that you have to do the same things, discharge coal and operate an excavator. Accept your differences.
Don't fight for whose view is better. Merge your attitudes and take advantage of them for your life. Don't argue and put your heads together. Two heads are better than one…

Love

This book acquaints us engagingly with our hidden motivations. These are based on deceptive position that the others are more important than we ourselves... How hard it is to love truly the others when we give them more space in our life than we are giving to ourselves...
The time has come for change. After reading this book, you will no longer be the same! Even if you would try to forget, "it" will force you to think about your life anyway.

It's time to get into harmony with ourselves. What doesn't serve us can never serve the others! Our male part desires to understand, to know, and to do "it" everything. Our female part desires with all our heart to feel "it" all, to get out of empty pondering, and to experience "it" personally. It's time to restore equilibrium. When we will finally put these two aspects together, we will understand and we will feel - LOVE is here. At every moment and in each of us. We can let it to lead us…
WE ARE BORN FOR LOVE! LOVE IN OURSELVES! AND THIS IS THE GREATEST LOVE THAT WE CAN TRULY GIVE TO OTHERS!

Sirinek on His Travels

The book is beautifully illustrated by the author and supplemented with "paintings from the heaven" by Zdeněk Hajný, a well-known Czech painter.

A book about a journey for children as well as for adults

An engaging reading for joint and true whiles of children and their parents spent together. How wonderful it is to contemplate the purpose of a journey of each of us and to feel that special magic of some meetings. Maybe you, together with the little boy Sirinek, will be even able to recollect why just you set forth on a journey...

You too, dear little and big friends, may feel that there is most certainly "something more" than what is visible at first glance ... Maybe something makes you stop from time to time and look up to the starry sky above your head. Maybe you are also staring in fascination at the shining stars in the night sky, wondering whether anyone and who actually dwells up there in the cosmic beauty. Everything is so distant, yet so strangely close... The night sky is so wonderful and uplifting. When you look up to the stars, you just feel great no matter where you are... I wonder why? Perhaps... perhaps you still vaguely remember your ancient home high in the stars. You may begin to recollect right now. Maybe your life here on Earth is only a short stop on your journey through the universe. Perhaps... the time will come one day when we will remember everything. Our life will become beautiful, we will know the answers to all our questions, and everything will join together... So let's start together with Sirinek, the friendly little boy from the stars, to search for answers to our life. Perhaps your recollection will be easier with him. And don't forget to have a good walk barefoot on a green grass from time to time... And also to sleep under the stars and watch the night sky occasionally... And send your greetings into space along with the most beautiful star. To all those who will collect it.

Take care dear travellers through the universe, be true at any given moment and listen to the sky overhead. Enjoy all your meetings. It's nice to meet together, for instance just here and now on Earth. Everything will join together one day… Seriously!
